Saturday 16th to Friday 22nd October 2027

DAY 1, Saturday 16th October: Outbound ferry/overnight stay
Early departure from local pick-up points to join the 1400 sailing from Pembroke to Rosslare (subject to confirmation).
Arrival at Rosslare approx. 1730. Travel to overnight hotel for dinner.
DAY 2, Sunday 17th October: Dublin tour/travel to Galway
This morning our guide will introduce us to the highlights of the popular city of Dublin. There will be time at leisure in the city before commencing our journey to Galway, our home for the next four nights.
DAY 3, Monday 18th October: Galway City & Harbour tour
A guided tour introduces us to this small, but charming city, revered by poets and songwriters over the years - a wonderful mix of culture, colour and twisting lanes with a uniquely shaped cathedral and impressive Spanish arch. We visit the harbour area and, time permitting the Salthill with views of Galway Bay.
DAY 4, Tuesday 19th October: Connemara National Park
Today we explore the Connemara National Park, a land of mountains, lakes and waterfalls. We visit pretty Clifden, the capital of Connemara, before passing the castellated mansion of Kylemore Abbey to reach Killary Bay for our included fjord cruise
Day 5, Wednesday 20th October: At leisure in Galway
Today is free to visit Galway at your own pace (driver day off)
Day 6, Thursday 21st October: Galway to Dublin
Departing Galway this morning, we head to the small town of Athlone on the banks of the River Shannon. We then continue the monastic site of Clonmacnoise where we have some time at leisure before continuing to Dublin for our final night's stay with dinner included
Day 7. Friday 22nd October: Dublin/Home
Included visit to the famous Guinness Storehouse at St James's Gate. Catch the 1400 return sailing to Holyhead then return to pick up points.
